Important information

Allergen Information for all dishes is available in the clearly-marked locations throughout the cafe. Alternatively, please ask a member of our team for assistance.

oOo

We work with any of the 14 notifiable allergens on a daily basis. All allergen requirements must be notified when placing your order. We are unable to amend dishes once an order has been placed, and any replacement items are required to be paid for.

oOo

Please note that whilst we take every care, we cannot guarantee the absence of an allergen from any dish ordered. We do require you to notify us when ordering and also to clarify when you receive your order from us.

oOo

Whilst we take every care with the products we make and serve, and despite our best efforts, please note that there is always a risk of hard matter being present in ingredients - and therefore the dish served to you - such as a fragment of walnut shell, a stone/pit from fruit, and such other matter.

We apologise if this arises but we cannot accept liability for this; please do bring the matter to our attention as soon as possible.

oOo

In the best interests of all of our customers, please note that we allocate tables for a maximum of 1 hour 45 minutes at weekends.
